Nays—None.

So House Bill No. 439 passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives.

Senator Adams moved that the rules be waived and the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 151, as amended, still in the possession of the Senate, passed the Senate on May 8, 1959.

S. B. No. 151—A bill to be entitled An Act relating to legislation; amending Chapter 11, Florida Statutes, by adding thereto Section 11.28, creating the Appropriations and Auditing Committee of the Legislative Council; providing for the composition and appointment of such committee; prescribing the powers, functions and duties of such committee; providing for the Legislative Reference Bureau to furnish personnel and other services needed by the committee; providing for all costs of this activity to be an expense of the Legislative Reference Bureau; repealing Section 21.011, Florida Statutes, relating to the Legislative Auditing Committee; and providing an effective date.

The President put the question: "Will the Senate reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 151, as amended, passed the Senate on May 8, 1959?"

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and the Senate reconsidered the vote by which Senate Bill No. 151, as amended, passed the Senate on May 8, 1959.

By unanimous consent, Senator Adams withdrew Senate Bill No. 151, as amended, from the further consideration of the Senate.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following message from the House of Representatives was read:

Tallahassee, Florida,
May 12, 1959.

*The Honorable Dewey M. Johnson,
President of the Senate.*

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed, with amendments, by the required Constitutional three-fourths vote of all members elected to the House of Representatives for the 1959 Session of the Florida Legislature—

By the Committee on Constitutional Amendments and Governmental Reorganization—

Senate Joint Resolution No. 660—

A JOINT RESOLUTION RELATING TO APPORTIONMENT; PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VII, OF THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION; PROVIDING FOR FORTY-FOUR SENATORIAL DISTRICTS; PROVIDING PLAN FOR APPORTIONING HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES; AND PROVIDING THAT VACANCIES AS ARE CREATED SHALL BE FILLED BY THE ELECTORS AT THE GENERAL ELECTION IN NOVEMBER, 1960.

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Florida has determined that an emergency requiring an early decision by the electors of the State does exist, and

WHEREAS, An amendment to the Constitution dealing with the subject matter of reapportionment should be submitted to the voters of the State of Florida at the earliest possible time, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the following amendment of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to apportionment in the Senate and House of Representatives be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida for approval or rejection at a special called election as provided by Article XVII, Section 3 of the Florida Constitution.

That three-fourths (¾) of all members elected to each house of the Legislature does determine that an emergency requiring an early decision by the electors of the State does exist with reference to this amendment to Article VII of the Constitution.

Section 1. Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Article VII are hereby repealed and in lieu thereof the following sections are hereby adopted:

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. Representation—Apportionment—

(a) Senate—The State shall be apportioned into forty-four (44) senatorial districts designated by number in consecutive order. Such apportionment shall provide fairness and equity among districts based upon population, geographic area and economic affinity; provided:

- (1) There shall be only one senator for each district;
- (2) No district shall be composed of more than three (3) counties.
- (3) Counties forming a district shall not be separated by territory of another district and must be contiguous.
- (4) No county shall be divided in creating a district.
- (5) Vacancies that are created by the reapportionment providing for forty-four (44) senatorial districts of the Senate shall be filled by the electors in the general election in November, 1960. Upon election, new senators shall be elected in the new districts for the following terms:

District 39 for four (4) years.

District 40 for two (2) years.

District 41 for four (4) years.

District 42 for two (2) years.

District 43 for four (4) years.

District 44 for two (2) years.

Thereafter, all senators shall be elected for a four year term.

(b) House of Representatives—The representation in the House of Representatives shall be apportioned as follows:

Three representatives to and for each of the five most populous counties, and two representatives to and for each of the eighteen more populous counties, and one representative to and for each of the remaining counties of the State at the time of such apportionment.

(c) First apportionment—reapportionment.—The first apportionment of each legislative house shall be in accordance with statute designating the senatorial districts and the representation in the House adopted at the 1959 Session of the Legislature, and the next apportionment shall be at the regular session in 1971, and decennially thereafter, the Legislature shall reapportion its representation in accordance herewith. Should it fail to do so, its duty shall continue in every session of whatever type until reapportionment has been effected.

(d) Failure to reapportion at regular session, and providing for extraordinary session to perform reapportionment.—Should the Legislature fail to reapportion the representation in the Legislature at any regular session as required, the Governor or the Legislature itself shall call the Legislature into extraordinary session to perform its duty within thirty days after adjournment. No other business shall be transacted during such session and the session shall not recess for more than seventy-two hours, except that after a period of sixty days from the date the extraordinary session is convened, the Governor may, by proclamation, or the Legislature may, by concurrent resolution, recess the Legislature to a future date, or may adjourn the Legislature sine die.

(e) Representation of a newly created county.—A newly created county shall have one representative in the House of Representatives until the succeeding reapportionment and until that time it shall be part of such adjoining senatorial district as the Legislature shall determine.

Which amendments read as follows:

Amendment No. 1—

In Section 1, Subsection (b), page 2, line 2 strike out: after words "apportioned as follows" remainder of Subsection (b) and insert the following in lieu thereof: Five (5) representatives to and for the most populous county; four (4) representatives to and for each of the two (2) next more populous counties; three (3) representatives to and for each of the six (6) next more populous counties; two (2) representatives to and for each of the fourteen (14) next more populous counties; and one (1) representative to and for each of the remaining counties of the state at the time of such apportionment.

Amendment No. 2—

In Section 1, Subsection C, following the words "and the next apportionment" insert the following: of the Senate

Amendment No. 3—

In Section 1, Subsection C, following the words "at the regular session in 1971," insert the following: and the next apportionment of the House of Representatives shall be at the regular session in 1961 based upon the 1960 Federal Census.

Amendment No. 4—

In the title strike out: ; and providing that vacancies as are created shall be filled by the electors at the general election in November, 1960. and insert the following in lieu thereof: ; and providing plan for filling vacancies created hereby.

—and respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Respectfully,

LAMAR BLEDSOE,

Chief Clerk, House of Representatives.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 660—

A JOINT RESOLUTION RELATING TO APPORTIONMENT; PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VII, OF THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION; PROVIDING FOR FORTY-FOUR SENATORIAL DISTRICTS; PROVIDING PLAN FOR APPORTIONING HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES; AND PROVIDING PLAN FOR FILLING VACANCIES CREATED HEREBY; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Florida has determined that an emergency requiring an early decision by the electors of the State does exist, and,

WHEREAS, An Amendment to the Constitution dealing with the subject matter of reapportionment should be submitted to the voters of the State of Florida at the earliest possible time, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the following amendment of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to apportionment in the Senate and House of Representatives be and the same is hereby agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida for approval or rejection at a special called election as provided by Article XVII, Section 3 of the Florida Constitution.

That three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of all members elected to each house of the Legislature does determine that an emergency requiring an early decision by the electors of the State does exist with reference to this amendment to Article VII of the Constitution.

Section 1. Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Article VII are hereby repealed and in lieu thereof the following sections are hereby adopted:

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. Representation—Apportionment—

(a) Senate—The State shall be apportioned into forty-four (44) senatorial districts designated by number in consecutive order. Such apportionment shall provide fairness and equity among districts based upon population, geographic area and economic affinity; provided:

- (1) There shall be only one senator for each district;
- (2) No district shall be composed of more than three (3) counties.
- (3) Counties forming a district shall not be separated by territory of another district and must be contiguous.
- (4) No county shall be divided in creating a district.
- (5) Vacancies that are created by the reapportionment providing for forty-four (44) senatorial districts of the Senate shall be filled by the electors in the general election in November, 1960. Upon election, new senators shall be elected in the new districts for the following terms:

District 39 for four (4) years.

District 40 for two (2) years.

District 41 for four (4) years.

District 42 for two (2) years.

District 43 for four (4) years.

District 44 for two (2) years.

Thereafter, all senators shall be elected for a four year term.

(b) House of Representatives—The representation in the House of Representatives shall be apportioned as follows:

Five (5) representatives to and for the most populous county; four (4) representatives to and for each of the two (2) next more populous counties; three (3) representatives to and for each of the six (6) next more populous counties; two (2) representatives to and for each of the fourteen (14) next more populous counties; and one (1) representative to and for each of the remaining counties of the state at the time of such apportionment.

(c) First apportionment—reapportionment.—The first apportionment of each legislative house shall be in accordance with statute designating the senatorial districts and the representation in the House adopted at the 1959 Session of the Legislature, and the next apportionment of the Senate shall be at the regular session in 1971, and the next apportionment of the House of Representatives shall be at the regular session in 1961 based upon the 1960 Federal Census; and decennially thereafter, the Legislature shall reapportion its representation in accordance herewith. Should it fail to do so, its duty shall continue in every session of whatever type until reapportionment has been effected.

(d) Failure to reapportion at regular session, and providing for extraordinary session to perform reapportionment.—Should the Legislature fail to reapportion the representation in the Legislature at any regular session as required, the Governor or the Legislature itself shall call the Legislature into extraordinary session to perform its duty within thirty days after adjournment. No other business shall be transacted during such session and the session shall not recess for more than seventy-two hours, except that after a period of sixty days from the date the extraordinary session is convened, the Governor may, by proclamation, or the Legislature may, by concurrent resolution, recess the Legislature to a future date, or may adjourn the Legislature sine die.

(e) Representation of a newly created county.—A newly created county shall have one representative in the House of Representatives until the succeeding reapportionment and until that time it shall be part of such adjoining senatorial district as the Legislature shall determine.

The President presiding.

Upon the passage of Senate Joint Resolution No. 660, as amended, the roll was called and the vote was:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 296—

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION 6 OF ARTICLE 3 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF FLORIDA, ESTABLISHING A NEW PERIOD FOR THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES BY PROVIDING FOR ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES DURING A SENATE AND A HOUSE CAUCUS TO BE HELD WITHIN TEN (10) DAYS AFTER THE GENERAL ELECTION OF 1960 AND EACH ONE THEREAFTER.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the following proposed amendment of Section 6 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Florida be substituted for the present Section 6 of Article 3 and be submitted to the electors of the State for ratification or rejection at the next general election to be held in 1960, as follows:

Section 6. Organization; officers; rules; expulsion of members, etc.—Each house shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers, and determine the rules of its proceedings. The senate shall, within ten (10) days after the general election to be held in 1960 and each one thereafter, caucus in the state and elect the president of the senate, who shall be its presiding officer. The house of representatives shall, within ten (10) days after the general election to be held in 1960 and each one thereafter, caucus in the state and elect the speaker of the house of representatives who shall be its presiding officer. Five (5) days subsequent to the election of the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, the secretary of the state shall administer to the persons so elected an oath of office. Each house may punish its own members for disorderly conduct and each house with the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of all its members present, may expel a member.
